PERSECUTION OF THE JEWS
IN RUSSIA.

BRASIL, May 12.—A telegram to the Local Anstalt from St. Petersburg says: "Terrible details of the persecution of the Jews are arriving from the interior of Russia."

Besides the awful accounts of Jew-baiting at Zhitomir, still worse doings are reported from the Government of Taurida, especially in Molitopol, where the Russian inhabitants have deliberately plundered Jews and carried off spoil unmolested. Whole streets were completely demolished, and the houses were then flooded with petroleum and set alight. Forty-two shops and warehouses containing goods of the value of £50,000 were absolutely gutted. In the streets themselves regular battles were fought by hands of factory workers and peasants armed with hatchets and crowbars. They paraded the town yelling: "Death to the Jews," and only a very energetic stand made by some of the citizens saved the synagogues from destruction. The police repeatedly prevented efforts being made to extinguish fire at houses belonging to the Jews, and gave the latter no protection whatever. Order was ultimately restored by the Vice-Governor with the help of the military.

No information respecting the number of victims has been received.

London, May 13.—The Jewish Chronicle makes the following announcement:—

"We are informed on very high authority that important developments may be anticipated in the situation of the Jews in Russia. According to our informant, a measure is 'more than under consideration' which will give unhelped-for relief to the Jews."

Absolute freedom of movement and residence will be granted to them in all the cities and towns of Russia, but not in the villages, as the authorities are unwilling to run the risk of a repetition of Kishineff. The murder of Jews, we are told, causes the Government more anxiety—because of the reputation the crime arouses in Europe—than that of persons of other nationalities.

The Old Testament says all it has to say with 1042 different words.

Under threat of expulsion from all public schools, the Bulgarian Minister for Education has forbidden the wearing of keffiyehs to all female pupils, either in our city or school.
